MARYELLEN KUEHL ABR, CRS, PMN, SRES

President, Founder and Managing Broker

Integrating knowledge, integrity, honesty, technology and experience for consistent client service and satisfaction

MaryEllen is a noted and experienced Broker/Owner and President of The Kuehl Group, Inc. MaryEllen holds extensive knowledge as a residential specialist focused in the areas of Asset Accumulation, Relocation, Referral, Green Building, Senior Real Estate, 1031 Exchanges, TIC Investment, New Construction, First-time Buyer and Luxury Homes.

MaryEllen has progressively built her industry experience over her 11 year career in the real estate industry. MaryEllen has combined her career history and experience, including Real Estate Para-Legal experience and undergraduate studies in Architectural & Interior Design to bring depth and knowledge to her practice.

MaryEllen's impressive record and reputation in the industry is well recognized, as well as her in-depth understanding of all Chicago neighborhoods and suburbs. MaryEllen currently holds the Accredited Buyer Representative (ABR), Certified Residential Specialist (CRS), Professional Management Network (PMN) and Senior Real Estate Specialist (SRES) designations. MaryEllen is additionally certified in Relocation, Referral and Green Building (GBREP-GL). She continues to work toward additional professional designations, including ePro Certification and Graduate of the Real Estate Institute (GRI).

MaryEllen has served Women's Council of Realtors® for 10 years in various positions, including 2008 IL State WCR Secretary and 2000 Chicago Chapter WCR President. From 2005-2007 MaryEllen served the Chicago Association of Realtors® as a member of the Professional Standards and Ethics Committee Grievance Board. MaryEllen has been honored as a 2006 Heritage Registry of Who's Who Recipient and a 2006 Manchester Who's Who Among Executive and Professional Women Lifetime Honors Recipient. MaryEllen's credentials are extensive, the complete list of which are attached separately.

MaryEllen's knowledge of and enthusiasm for Chicago real estate combined with her negotiating skills, knowledge, experience, empathy and attention to detail contribute to her success in anticipating and satisfying the needs and concerns of her clients. Her clients say that MaryEllen exceeds their expectations of service from start to post-closing and feel confident in her abilities to be their advocate, protector and source for reliable resources from attorneys and lenders to painters and plumbers.

MaryEllen's community involvement is extensive. She has served as an active leader in her community including the Junior Women's League Board, the 2004-2005 President of the Women of St. Chrysostom's, building on-site for Habitat for Humanity in Chicago and actively serving as a member of multiple Chambers of Commerce.

MaryEllen also donates generously to various church and charitable organizations. MaryEllen is dedicated to world missions and decent, affordable housing that is in reasonable proximity to schools, employment opportunities and human services for all across the nation.

MaryEllen and her husband, Ted Kuehl, are lifelong Chicagoland residents and currently reside in Chicago's North Center/Lincoln Square area. MaryEllen's passions include her three grown children, her grandchildren, her dog, Kodiak, gardening, knitting and bicycling.

MaryEllen promotes honesty, integrity and professionalism.
